THE 2015 FALL SEASON!

A delightful intersection of humor, love and subculture, In Love and Warcraft offers a fresh comedic look at the collision between online gaming and In Real Life (IRL) relationships.

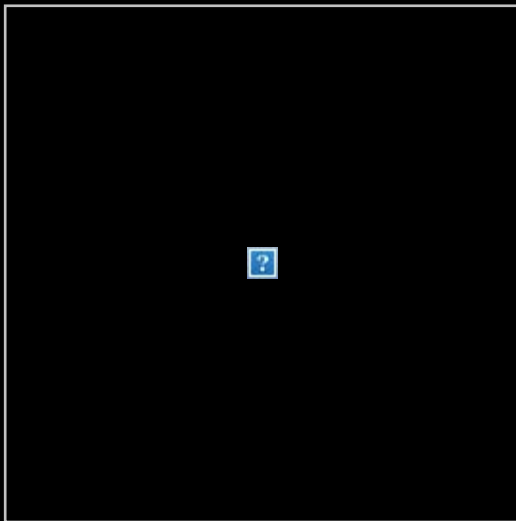

In remembrance of the 50th Anniversary of the 1965 Watts Riots, Watts Village Theater Company reimagines their production of Donald Jolly's Riot/Rebellion which revisits the historic six days in August when the struggle of race, class and power exploded in Watts.

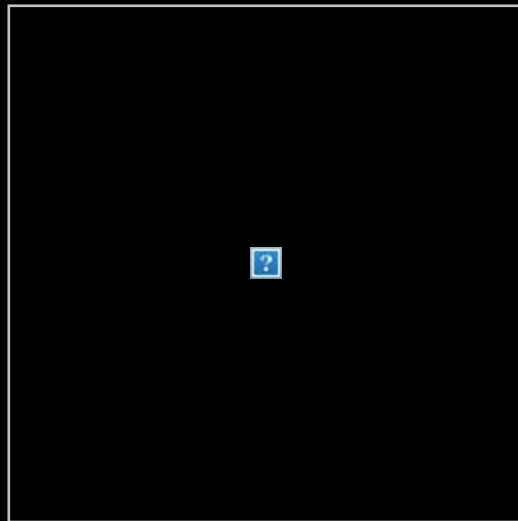

Chelle and her brother Lank are making ends meet by turning their basement into an after-hours joint. As their pent-up feelings erupt, so does their city, and they find themselves caught in the middle of the 1967 Detroit riots.

This one-man memory play starring Ric Salinas, explores the Baby Boomers' generation of "double immigrants" who first moved from their homelands to the U.S. barrios in search of opportunity - then moved on up into the suburbs in search of color TV and the middle-class American dream!

Three hilarious, touching and surprisingly personal Christmas stories of holidays past told by acclaimed Latina comedians, Sandra Valls, Diana Yanez, and Maria Russell.

La Virgen de Guadalupe, Dios Inantzin is the story of an indigenous peasant's vision of the Virgin Mary that has become a theatrical cornerstone at Our Lady of the Angels Cathedral for over a decade.

Rock & Doc is a two-day music and documentary film festival showcasing classic and new rockumentaries and live performances by exciting bands.

The Stand is a benefit performance. A true story of addiction, homelessness, grace, friendship and redemption that will move audiences to laughter and tears.
